

College Student Bunk-in Program 2023-2024 at Delmar-Bethlehem EMS (DBEMS)

Rent Free Housing and a Unique College Experience for EMTs

The Delmar-Bethlehem EMS bunk in program provides rent free housing to qualifying college students in exchange for being an active and responding ambulance crew member. The program is available to college students living in the Capital region who are EMT certified and ready for duty. Applicants are being sought for the term beginning in the Fall of 2023.

Applicants must:

- Be 19 years of age before September 2023
- Be a NYS certified EMT and maintain certification
- Attend an area college/university full-time or the HVCC or Cobleskill Paramedic program
- Maintain school enrollment throughout the length of bunk-in participation
- Ride 18 scheduled hours per week on an ambulance crew
- Meet the requirements for DBEMS membership, have EMT experience with an ambulance service, and be able to quickly assume duty as an ambulance "Crew Chief"
- Meet DBEMS driver requirements and have CEVO or EVOC training
- Commit for the fall 2023 and spring 2024 semester; can be extended into summer

Bunk-In Program participants will live in a newly renovated two-bedroom furnished apartment one mile from the EMS Station that will be shared with another Bunk-In EMT. On-duty time will be spent in our EMS stations with recently upgraded crew day rooms, kitchens, study areas, and private bunk rooms. Bunk-in shifts are between 6 pm and 6 am. Average call volume on the 12-hour evening/night shift is a total of 4 calls, split between two on-duty ambulance crews. Duty uniforms and equipment will be provided. We are eight miles from the University at Albany.

To obtain an application, please send a letter of interest and resume that outlines how you meet the above requirements to Lt. Bob Gehrer at bob.gehrer@delmarems.org. To learn about Delmar-Bethlehem EMS, please go to www.DelmarEMS.org or find us on Facebook.
